

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

This certificate is proudly awarded to Aayush Parikh of Westwood High IB World School in recognition of successfully completing his Business Operations Internship at Aum Agri Freeze Foods.

The internship took place from June 16, 2023, to July 11, 2025. Over this period, Aayush learned the core building blocks of running a company, managing supply chains, and handling daily business tasks. Working closely with our operations department, he made valuable contributions to our market research, inventory systems, and sales support.

Additionally, he explored how products are distributed to buyers, gaining hands-on knowledge of order processing, quality control standards, working with suppliers, and basic sales tracking. Aayush actively supported our team with essential project paperwork, organizing data, and conducting research. He also studied how we build strong customer connections and put together creative marketing and promotional ideas.

Throughout his internship, Aayush was dependable, focused, highly organized, and always eager to learn. He handled every task with great responsibility and showed a genuine curiosity for teamwork and business strategy.

We highly appreciate his hard work and wish him the absolute best in high school, college, and all of his future career goals.

Kind Regards,

Prashant Shah
